Business Meeting

May Minutes
Motion to accept minutes of May 23, 2013 meeting. Motion seconded. Motion carries.

Introduction of changes to statute because of desire for wider scope of practice. Work with Kay Christensen and Governor’s Office. Other options discussed could include becoming a 501c3, tax exempt organization or a self-governing agency.

Discussion of potential funding opportunities: Aspen Institute. Letter of Intent due August 19, 2013. Possibilities for ways to fund larger grant pool and put more “feet on the ground”, not to increase organizational staff capacity. Gladys Langroise Fund. Idaho Community Foundation as structure outside of ourselves as way to raise money. Roger suggests having Bob Hoover from ICF come to next Board Meeting. Board confirms idea.

Financial Report:

Motion
Motion to accept financial report.
Motion seconded. Motion carries.

Changes to budget:
Roger explains how he has redistributed budget to reflect spending projections vs. actual expenditures.

Motion
Motion to accept amendments to budget.
Motion seconded. Motion carries.

Multi Year Grants:
Wickes MacColl introduces Multi Year Grant Applications, Cycle 4. Each application addresses prevention using a strengths-based, strengthening families approach.

After scoring and deliberations the board authorized funding for ICARE, Catholic Charities, and Idaho Department of Correction proposals.

$10,000 to potentially go to Child Sexual Abuse prevention with Bannock Youth if that funding can be effectively used. The board authorized the grants manager to work with Bannock Youth staff to adjust the budget and work plan based on reduced dollars.

Will recommend Salvation Army or Bannock Youth Foundation to Tidwell Foundation

Motion
Motion to accept funding for ICARE, CCI, and IDOC with $10k to Bannock Youth (determined by Wickes in consultation with BYF staff), and Salvation Army and CATCH, Inc. recommended to Tidwell Idaho Foundation.

Motion seconded. Motion carries.

Meeting adjourned by Mary Marshall, board chair, at 5:20 pm.
